Mayor Stanfield asked, Mr. Jeffries if Senator Yager had got back with him on the Post Office Building. Mr. Jeffries replied that he had not heard back from Senator Yager. Mr. Jeffries stated he did receive an email from Karen Cumbridge around 4:30 pm. Mr. Jeffries stated the email said the Senator had spoken to some people but basically it was still in limbo but they were going to try to have some more meetings this week to work things out. Mr. Jeffries said the alternative to it would be to store the windows in the basement and in the future if the money is available or comes available they can restore the windows at that time if that is what the council wants to do. Mrs. Thompson asked if he was saying to go ahead and replace them. Mr. Jeffries replied go ahead and replace them and the old windows could be stored in the basement and at some time if the council decided they wanted to replace them they would still have the original windows. Mayor Stanfield advised the council they had until sometime in June to use the grant or the city would lose it. Mayor Stanfield advised the council he felt they needed to act tonight before the city lost the grant. Mayor Stanfield asked, what is the pleasure of the Council.
